Reporting Your Service has given/is giving a Certificate for Special Child Care Benefit (SCCB) for a Child at Risk when a service is eligible for Child Care Benefit (Service SCCB)

What is Service SCCB?

Special Child Care Benefit (SCCB) is part of the range of assistance provided by the Australian Government to assist families to access quality child care and early childhood learning for children who are considered at risk of serious abuse or neglect.

The term ‘Service SCCB’ is used as shorthand to refer to the circumstances where a service is eligible in relation to a child at risk under section 47 of the A New Tax System (Family Assistance) Act 1999 (the Act).

This form only applies to Service SCCB. It does not apply where an individual is conditionally eligible in relation to a child at risk, or where an individual who is conditionally eligible is experiencing hardship.

When giving certificates for Service SCCB, please ensure that you are also familiar with your service’s obligation to not exceed the SCCB reporting period limit. If you do exceed it, your service will incur a debt to the Australian Government that must be paid back. The reporting period limit for the current quarter is, unless the Secretary (of the Department of Social Services) has determined otherwise, the following amount: 18% of the total child care benefit that is payable to your service in the quarter two quarters before the current quarter.

Please refer to section 14 of the Child Care Service Handbook and the SCCB fact sheet for more information on SCCB and circumstances when it should be applied, including information about the reporting period limit.

To claim Service SCCB for a session of care, your service must believe at the time the session of care is provided to the child that the child is at risk of serious abuse or neglect. This is a requirement of section 47 of the Act.

When to use this form

Complete this form when Service SCCB applies (that is, when your service is eligible in relation to a child at risk under section 47 of the Act); and

• your service is certifying an hourly rate of Child Care Benefit by fee reduction under section 76(2) of the Act for an initial period of not more than 13 weeks in the current financial year for a particular child at risk of serious abuse or neglect.

Note that your service should not give a certificate if by doing so your service would exceed the reporting period limit for the current quarter – in that case, your service should make an application under section 81 of the Act, see separate application form.

How to use this form

1. Please complete all of Parts A and C of the form, following the instructions for Part B of the form.

2. Send this completed and signed form, together with supporting documentation (if appropriate), to the CCMS Helpdesk either by:
   - Fax – 1300 663 429
   - Email – ccmshelpdesk@dss.gov.au
Additional information about advising us of a certificate your service is giving under section 76(2) of the Act

If your service is certifying an hourly rate under section 76(2) of the Act, your service may either:

- use this form as the certificate – in which case, provided your service completes all the relevant parts of this form, submission of this form will be taken to:
  - be a report of your service’s eligibility under sections 49(2) and 49D of the A New Tax System (Family Assistance) (Administration) Act 1999 (the Administration Act); and
  - have satisfied your service’s obligations under:
    - section 76(3) of the Act;
    - section 9(a) of the Child Care Benefit (Rates and Hardship) Determination 2000 (Rates Determination); and
    - section of the 6(c) of the A New Tax System (Family Assistance) (Administration) (Child Care Benefit – Recording Keeping) Rules 2006 (Record Keeping Rules) (your service must keep a copy of the certificate for 36 months from the end of the calendar year in which care was provided); or

- use this form to report your service’s eligibility under sections 49(2) and 49D of the Administration Act – and scan the certificate your service has given under section 76(2) of the Act and attach it to this form. Your service is responsible in this instance for ensuring that the certificate your service has given complies with the requirements of:
  - section 76(3) of the Act; and
  - section 9(a) of the Rates Determination, and that your service complies with section 6(c) of the Record Keeping Rules (your service must keep a copy of the certificate for 36 months from the end of the calendar year in which care was provided).
