Department of Families, Housing, Community Services and Indigenous Affairs

OFFICIAL ORDER No 45407318

1. Date

This Official Order is executed on 24/04/12.

2. Contract Services

- 2.1 The contractor is required to conduct qualitative market research to test a name for the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS), the effectiveness of key messages, the preferred communication channels and determine the current understanding of the NDIS.

Methodology

The Contractor will conduct qualitative market research consisting of eight small group discussions allocated across metropolitan and at least one regional area. Discussion groups will comprise 6-8 respondents.

Two of the group discussions will be with carers of people with disability, two of the groups will be with participants who have a disability, two of the groups will be with the disability sector and two of the groups will be with the general public. Groups will be up to 90 minutes in duration.

Research objectives

The objectives of the research are to:

- test a name for the scheme
- determine current understanding of the NDIS – both people with disability and those within the sector; and the general public.

The findings of this research will identify:

- what people with disability, their family and carers, the disability sector and general public know/understand about the NDIS.
 - What do you know about the NDIS? Who initiated it? What is involved? Who is it aimed at? When will it come into effect?
- what people with disability, their family and carers, the disability sector and general public think the NDIS is trying to achieve.
- how important the NDIS is to people with disability, their family and carers, the disability sector and general public.
 - What sort of impact would these initiatives have on you and/or your family?

- do people with disability, their family and carers find it important to have input into the development of the scheme.
 - If so, how would they like to provide input?
- what specific information would people with disability, their family and carers like to know about the NDIS.

s22

- test the list of draft names (as provided by the Department) along with associated top-line messaging to determine which name embodies the objectives and the NDIS to people with disability, their family and carers.

Recruitment

The Department will be leading recruitment of focus groups with carers, people with disability and the sector. The Contractor will lead recruitment of focus groups with the general public:

People with disability:

- male and female
- aged 18-65
- a range of physical disability types

Carers:

- male and female
- carers aged 18-65

Disability sector:

- a range of disability service providers

General public:

- male and female
- aged 18-65

The Contractor will develop a recruitment screener to ensure suitable participants are recruited. The screener must be sensitively worded to maximise participation rates and avoid upsetting or offending potential respondents. The Contractor will provide the recruitment screener to the Department for approval, prior to its use.

The Contractor will re-screen all participants on the day of each focus group for quality assurance purposes.

The Contactor will ensure that all participants are paid through a monetary payment to a value of $70 per participant.

Any variations to the recruitment details can be agreed in writing between the Contractor and the Department in accordance with 15. Notices.

Sampling

The Contractor will undertake a total of eight discussion groups, conducted across the following locations: Sydney, Canberra, Melbourne and Geelong.

As outlined in the table below, a total of three focus groups will be held in Sydney, one focus group in Canberra, two focus groups in Melbourne and two focus groups in Geelong.

	People with disability	Carers	Disability sector	General public	Total
Sydney	1 group	-	1 group	1 group	3 groups
Canberra	-	1 group	-	-	1 group
Melbourne	-	-	1 group	1 group	2 groups
Geelong (Vic)	1 group	1 group	-	-	2 groups
Total	2 groups	2 groups	2 groups	2 groups	8 groups

Fieldwork

The Contractor will undertake qualitative fieldwork as identified under 'Sampling' above.

The Contractor will provide the Department with a full fieldwork schedule confirming recruitment status, dates, locations. This will be provided in a table to the Department and updated as the details are confirmed by the Contractor.

Group discussion guide

The Contractor is required to develop a discussion guide for the focus groups, which must be approved by the Department prior to the commencement of the focus groups.

Focus Groups

The Contractor must ensure that focus groups held in metropolitan areas are held in disability accessible venues with appropriate viewing facilities.

Analysis

Following completion of the qualitative fieldwork, the Contractor will conduct a full review of each of the target audiences, in terms of any commonalities or patterns in attitudes and behaviours, to find common themes and patterns. The Contractor will provide the Department with recommendations on the names tested, ^{s22}

s22

Contractor is required to ensure that this analysis meets the research objectives as stated in this contract.

Reporting

The Contractor must maintain close contact with the contact officer via phone and/or email, including how it is tracking against the objectives, timeframes and deliverables described in this contract, which must be provided by email. This should include:

- progress of recruitment and update of fieldwork details
- identification of any issues to be resolved by or with advice/information/decision required by the Department
- any issues with recruitment including people with disability and carer participants

The Contractor will provide three hard copies of a written report about the research findings on completion of the research. An electronic version of the report in Microsoft Word format will be provided to the Project Officer at the completion of the research.

The research consultant will be required to provide the following:

1. Qualitative research: one final report, including an overview of the key findings, analysis, strengths/weaknesses of each name tested, s22

s22

The report should include:

- an executive summary of key findings and recommendations
- analysis and interpretation of research results
- recommendations on how to apply the research results to conduct effective information activities
- recommend a name for the scheme with a supporting rationale
- a summary of the research methodology including
 - dates for when the fieldwork was conducted
 - final profiles of the research participants (e.g. type of disability, or who they care for, or what disability peak/organisation they are from)
 - hard copy of research instruments (e.g. questionnaire, discussion guides, etc)
 - summary of the activities, timeline, outcomes, challenges and budget.
 - discussion of what worked, what didn't work and ways to improve future projects.

Other details:

- All groups will be moderated by senior researchers.
- Full analysis will be undertaken on each group which will be integrated into reporting.
