Yes- first page coming out twice the size of the other pages. If the settings are put on Size rather than Booklet, and with the following settings it prints OK except for the front and back pages.

I've attached the version that was right for printing but with the front page spelling mistake – it prints ok with the above settings.

I've just printed it myself, first and alst page correct orientation but still coming out as A4 is it the same your end?

Jacqui
